ALL HONOR TO THE DEAD.

The spirit of bravery and fearless self-sacrifice that has always animated the miners on this western coast, receives renewed acknowledgment as the story of the late disaster in the Alta is chronicled. The noble men who faced death that they might perchance rescue their suffering comrades, proved themselves worthy of the love and admiration of the brave hearts around them. Greater love hath no man than this. That a man lay down his own life for a friend's.

Talmage's opinion of consistent Christian amusements. "The church has been denouncing hurtful and dangerous amusements for centuries," said Mr. Talmage, "and it is time to tell the people what they may do. This world will never be reformed by a religion of 'Don't!' There is no reason why Christians should be forbidden to enjoy themselves. I mean to serve a writ of ejectment on all the sinful ones who have squatted on the inheritance of the children of God, and clear it out to the rightful heirs. It is a wrong to say constantly that 'this is wrong' and 'that this is wrong' without showing which is right. I will show you forms of enjoyment good for body and mind. First, of indoor sports, music—vocal and instrumental. It was one of the first things God created. Then I would recommend the gymnasium. There are Christians who would be mightily benefited by it. Some men pass their lives talking about their immortal souls, when the trouble with them is incompetent livers. To be pious they think they must be poorly. The world scoffs at 'muscular Christianity,' but a consecrated soul and muscular vigor is what is needed. With such a puny set of Christians as we have in this world we can never capture it for God. Parlor games and amusements will make homes attractive. Don't stand before your children as examples of immaaculate goodness. Because your ankles are stiff and your eyes dim, don't wonder why your children's eyes brighten at the dance. Chess, charades, battledores, caleschenics have not one taint of iniquity about them. Take your families out to places of amusements. The lecture platform has set the world seventy-five years ahead. I commend the croquet ground, the hunter's gun, the fisherman's rod, archery and other field sports. We want more free air, more sunshine and abandonment to field sports in our lives, and more sunshine and free air in our theology. The reformers of the world sit in their studies until they grow morbid and think everything is wrong. The children of God are not on their way to the penitentiary, but to a palace. There is no grander recreation than the pleasure of doing good."

A New Yorker took his friend, an Irishman, to the theater. Immediately in front of them sat a young lady with a hat on that measured several feet from tip to tip. When the curtain rose and the play began, the two men could only get occasional glimpses of the stage by dodging round the hat. Finally the New Yorker observed testily: "Confound a woman that has no more sense than to wear such a Swiss cottage roof at a place of public amusement." "Go aisy," said the gallant Celt; "a mighty conviniance she'd be in a hot climate where there was no trees."

In the Senate yesterday Mr. Slater introduced a bill prohibiting and making a misdemeanor the solicitation by any executive officer, clerk or employee of the United States, not the head of a department, of money, property or other thing of value, and giving or receiving the same for political purposes or party interests. The penalty imposed is a fine of $500 and the loss of office. Referred to the Civil Service Committee.

The assassin Giteau is said to be failing rapidly both in mind and body. As the fatal day draws near he has probably come to a realization of the fact that no supernatural power will interfere to save him from his doom.

In 1880 Oregon cast a majority for Garfield of something over 600 votes. We confidently expect gains, if not victory, for the Democratic ticket. —Eureka Sentinel, 6th.

Have you read the latest telegrams?

On Longfellow's seventy-fifth birthday it was estimated that 325,550 volumes of his poetical works had been sold. Not less than 30,000 copies of his books are sold annually in Great Britain and Ireland.

The figures prepared on the price of labor in this country by the Census bureau shows that American workmen receive nearly 100 per cent. more than those of Great Britain.

The Law of Libel.

Judge Lowell has given a sensible opinion in a libel case before the United States Supreme Court in Boston, brought against a newspaper. He laid down the law to be that the conduct of those taking an active part in the matter of affecting the public was a legitimate subject for public discussion. The qualifications and public acts of every public man are open to criticism, and in such cases the critic is not bound to prove the exact truth of his statements. If he acts in good faith, and has reasonable grounds for believing that what he writes is true, he is not guilty of libel, although his information may prove to be erroneous.

Congress and Garibaldi.

Mr. Kasson, of Iowa, offered a joint resolution in the House of Representatives Tuesday declaring that Congress, in connection with the people of the United States, have received with profound grief the tidings of the recent death of the Italian patriot, General Garibaldi, expressing high appreciation of his loyalty and unselfish patriotism, his love of human rights and his devotion to principles, avowing the sympathy of the United States with the friendly nation which has been thus bereaved, and requesting the President to cause a copy of these resolutions to be communicated to the Government of Italy. Unanimously adopted.

An Independent Woman.

Mrs. Belva Lockwood, the woman lawyer, is the subject of severe criticism, and what is harder to bear, a great deal of ridicule, because she chooses to take her morning ride down Pennsylvania Avenue on a tricycle. This woman must possess courage as well as intellect. For, although riding that vehicle may be a much pleasanter and cheaper way of traveling than patronizing horse cars, a vast amount of actual bravery must be necessary to thus set aside the customs and prejudices of years.

Proposed Reduction of Letter Postage.

Mr. Davis, of West Virginia, offered a resolution and it was adopted in the Senate Tuesday requesting the Committee on Postoffices to report upon the propriety of reducing the rate of postage on letters to two cents and on papers and other printed matter to half the present rates; also, increasing the rate on merchandise authorized to be sent through the mails.

One of the charity Kindergarten schools in San Francisco, was the recipient of a check for $200 from Mr. Charles Crocker, previous to his departure for Europe. These Kindergarten associations are established where they can help the lowest and most destitute little ones in the city. Every donation to such a cause is sure to accomplish good.

BUZZING.

The Austin Beville has the subjoined political article:

There is considerable amount of political buzzing going on at this time in every part of the State, Austin not excepted, and "influence," as well as judicious combinations, is carefully canvassed and studied. As yet anything in that line is premature to a considerable extent, and the really shrewd politician and aspirant carefully avoids committing himself but just quietly studies the outlook and the chances. Five long months intervene between now and election, the Chinese bill has exercised considerable influence in party matters during the past five months, and perhaps some national or local issues may change political aspects more or less during the next five months. Anyhow, few judicious politicians and really smart and eligible men care to come out in bold aspiration for any offices that may be contingent upon other positions and combinations, and then have to back out. They are right in considering it safest to wait and watch. The "dark horses" often make the best run and win on the home stretch. After the Fourth of July will be time enough to fire up under the political mush kettle, and see what can be made to bubble forth.

In the matter of the Governorship, however, it is well enough to make an exception, and look around and study a little. It is a very important and responsible office. A man of sound common sense, backbone and responsible ability is required, and none other should be allowed to apply; none other should be permitted to win. The Democrats will endeavor to put their best man in the field, and feel extremely confident of winning, but the Democrats can generally be relied upon to make some foolish blunder at the proper time. The Republicans however may do the same thing, for past experience has shown them not to be infallible. Of the known Republican aspirants for the position, so far as announced, there is little to say. They are all good men, but the party point is to nominate the winning man. There is a fine chance for a dark horse on that proposition by and by.

"No man, I think, should devote himself to poetry as a means of making a living. True poetry is the offspring of our best hours. If you make a trade of it you may be sure that it will degenerate into mere verse making. Therefore, follow some calling or profession for a livelihood, and keep the gift of song sacred and for itself alone." —Longfellow.

FOR THE LADIES.

Toed stockings are the latest invention. The dandelion is becoming a fashionable flower. The newest French flower is christened Jumbo's ears. Flowers are extravagantly used for hat and bonnet trimmings. Large sagging puffs form the paniers of many new model costumes. Straight wreaths of roses without foliage are worn on wide-brimmed garden hats. The square shoulder is to be the style for women. Fashion allows it, though men may not approve it. Velvet loops and large Alsatian bows of velvet will be much used to trim even Summer bonnets of delicate straw. New embroidered lace fichus of black net glitter with a dense covering of black cut, jet bugles and pendants. A new kid glove, having a tiny pocket fitted into the palm of the hand, fastened with a button, has been invented for people to carry their car ticket or a small sum of money. Lovely little poke sun-bonnets, with high crown and short gathered skirt, are made of bias and white lawn, shirred on rattans, to match the guimpe dresses in color. A great many wrappers made from fancy blankets are being prepared for use at the sea-side. Red, blue and gray blankets are alike used for these, and the border forms the trimming. Picturesque black hats, black gloves and black stockings will be much worn together. They will not be relegated to black dresses only, but will be worn with any kind of dress, even white. Sash bows of immense size is the popular form of wearing sashes; the ribbon is not passed round the waist, but the wide bow and its ends form part of the drapery at the back of the skirt. Watered ribbon is the favorite. Among the novelties in lingerie are Elizabethan and Marie Stuart ruffs, made, some of lace and others of exquisitely embroidered India muslin. They are kept upright by means of a very fine wire covered with gauze and run along the edge.

CEDARVILLE CHIPS.

(Moloch Independent.)

Business of all kinds is brisk. The streets are filled with teams of the farmers and stockraisers of the surrounding country, and large freight teams are arriving and departing daily, loaded with goods and produce of the valley.

Kistler Bros. & Co. are busily engaged opening out their large stock of Spring and Summer goods. They have a complete and well selected stock of everything belonging to their line of business, such as clothing, boots and shoes, dry goods of every variety and style, fancy articles, watches, jewelry, etc.

M. D. Haynes & Co. are receiving weekly large invoices of groceries, hardware, agricultural implements, etc.

O. W. Lee has a large stock in store of stoves, tinware of all descriptions, cutlery, etc.

J. C. Welcome has on the way a large and well selected stock of harness, saddles, etc., which will be disposed of at terms to suit the times.

The new firm of L. Woldenberg & Co. are in full blast. They have on hand a good assortment of dry goods, clothing, tobacco, cigars, fancy articles, etc., which will be disposed of at bedrock prices.

Kauffman & Lee opened out their new meat market north of the Cedarville Hotel, where they will constantly keep on hand choice beef, pork, mutton, sausage, spiced meats, etc., and as Gus is an adept in that line, customers can be assured that they will get what they call for.

Frank Monchamp starts this morning with a drove of horses for Butte City, Montana.

The Cedarville flour mill is still running to its fullest capacity, and will not get through grinding the old crop until August.

The Cedarville Cornet Band is improving rapidly, and can now furnish the best music in northern California.

The next session of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows will probably be held in Reno.

Gen. P. E. Connor was a passenger on yesterday morning's train on his way to Eureka.

Sheriff Ben Fitch, of Elko, came down from Carson last evening, and will leave for home this morning.

Dick Dwyer and F. C. McCarty were in town last night and departed east this morning on a collecting trip.

Judge J. F. Lewis was a passenger for Virginia yesterday morning. The Judge now calls Tombstone his home.

The commencement exercises at Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, at Reno, will begin on Wednesday, June 21, at 1 p. m.

D. A. Bender has gone to Cherry Creek to inspect the Star mine, in which he is a large stockholder and a Trustee.

Ex-Senator Sharon came up from the Bay yesterday morning. He has gone out on the Carson & Colorado Railroad on a tour of inspection.

Dr. Adams, of Virginia, who is suffering from a cold, is reported to have been very sick for a few days, but was much better last night.

It is stated on good authority that the Auburn mill, the property of Samuel Brown, will be put in repairs and started up at once, as a custom mill.

Frank C. Peterson, for several years in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph Co., here, has resigned to take a position as fireman on the C. P. R.

The rumor that there was to be an excursion to Donner Lake, on Saturday next, seems to have been without foundation. Many are inquiring about it, who know?

The Carson Appeal has discovered some delightful picnic grounds within three miles of the town. How fortunate that a little extra energy was put forth in the line of investigation. Just at this time such a discovery is indeed fortunate.

Gloom again envelops the old "Burke" corner. The "fun, money and cigars," that so lately made the place noisy with shot and fragrant with powder, have been taken to itself wings, and the festive mahala and the quiet "John" stand in front of the closed doors in sad want of the "cheap good time all gone."

There has been some talk in town of establishing an order of "Council of Chosen Friends." This association is of a social and beneficiary nature. The members can insure in a $1,000, $2,000 or $3,000 class. There is a reserve fund for the assistance of their sick and needy members, and the proportion of assessments is so arranged as not to be burdensome. Many other good features are claimed for this "Council."

At a meeting of the Academy of Sciences in San Francisco last Monday evening, several valuable contributions were sent in, including a specimen of a flying fish from Monterey, a carved mouse cup from Casa Grande, A. T., a snow plant from the Sierra Nevada, some Indian curiosities taken from a grave at Corinne, Utah, and a fall set of maps from the War Department, showing the river and harbor improvements.

The present term of the public school is drawing to a close. Parents should insist upon their children attending regularly up to vacation time. It is very discouraging to the teachers to see the classes dwindle down and note the absence of their brightest pupils during the last important days of examination. Those who visit the schools are rejoiced to see the rooms full of scholars so interested in their studies that they are anxious to improve every hour. It seems as though a regular system of promotion once in a certain number of months (which we suppose they have) ought to be an inducement to constant attendance.

Odd Fellows' Banquet.

The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows was banqueted at the Arlington Hotel Tuesday evening by the Carson Lodges. Toasts were given and responded to as follows:

The Sovereign Grand Lodge—W. H. Hill and D. O. Adkison.

The Bed-Rock of Odd Fellowship—A. D. Rock.

Remarks were also made by Judge Leonard, W. S. Byrne, J. D. Kersey, A. M. McCabe, Geo. Tufty, H. H. Bence and J. D. Hammond.

Fourth of July Meeting.

Several citizens met at the Justice Court rooms last evening. Judge Marshall was selected Chairman. On motion it was decided to celebrate, and Messrs. R. F. Hoy, H. P. Krause, H. J. Thyges, were appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions, and to report on Saturday next. On motion of Mr. Bragg the Chair was authorized to appoint a committee of five to constitute a Committee of Arrangements. The Chair appointed A. C. Bragg, W. A. Walker, P. B. Comstock, Mr. Asa Dawson and Mr. Frank Perkins, and the meeting added Judge Marshall and C. C. Powning, the latter declining to serve. Adjourned until Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Alta Survivors.

The Enterprise says the seven men who were so miraculously rescued from the Alta drift after being shut in for sixty-five hours by the flood of hot water, are all getting along very well. They say they feel about as well as ever, but their faces show the effects of their long confinement in a place so hot and confined. Nearly all have a worn look, and show dark rings below the eyes. One of the men says they could tell as well when the bailing tanks were going as though they had seen them. When a tank came down and struck into the water it created a surge that rolled back some three or four feet upon the dry ground at their end of the drift.

A Flood in Washoe Valley.

The supply of water in and along the Washoe Valley is much in excess of the present requirements. The melting of the snow in the mountains causes a regular flood, and the Virginia Chronicle says farmers are compelled to dig ditches and throw up embankments, in order that the grasshoppers may have something to feast on during the hungry season.

Grand Lodge I. O. O. F.

The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows continued its work at Carson yesterday. Resolutions were offered naming Reno, Winnemucca and Virginia, as the place for holding the next session.

To-day's session will be a busy one, as the election of officers will take place.

Annual Election.

The Nevada & Oregon Railroad Company held their annual election yesterday afternoon, and elected the following named gentlemen as Directors for the ensuing year. D. W. Balch, C. A. Bragg, A. H. Manning, W. F. Berry, R. L. Fulton, F. F. Fowler and George A. King.

Picnic.

The Knights of Pythias intend giving a picnic at Donner Lake some time during this month, probably upon the 17th or 24th. A good time for everybody will be had.

A Mission will open in the Catholic Church here on next Sunday, June 11. It will continue for one week. The sermons will be preached by Rev. J. M. Burchard, a Jesuit from San Francisco, one of the most eloquent priests in the country.

There is no garden to be seen just now that has not a bush of blooming yellow roses.

Tom Barnett intends to give the people a benefit, no more nor less than a grand clearance sale of his immense stock of boots and shoes, furnishing goods, etc. The sale will commence on the 4th of June and continue ninety days.

Compound sage powder for constipation for sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

Don't forget your bath at Peckner's to-day.

MEMORIES OF HOME.

Far away in the western country,
In the rock-ribbed Silver State,
I think of a broken household,
And hear that patiently wait.

For the time when the pain of parting
Shall be lost in joyous return,
While from the dear ones' greeting,
God's tender love we learn.

It is not a grand old mansion
That my longing eyes would see,
But a dear little home near the mountains,
'Tis the only home for me.

Through the rocky glen in the valley
A stream rushes on to its doom;
And the plaintive moan of its waters
Is heard in the twilight's gloom.

The notes of the feathered songsters
Are wafted down from the trees;
And the breath of sweet wild roses
Floats lightly in on the breeze.

How I long for my home in the sunset land!
Oh my loved ones! now gathered there,
Do you think of one who is absent,
And remember her in your prayer?

May the eye of our Father in Heaven,
Which so lovingly looketh on all,
Rest ever in mercy upon you,
And guard you when troubles fall.

—HOPE ALWAY.

Asparagus.

This delicious vegetable product is quite a rarity outside of the city gardens and village farms. It is deserving of a place on every farm, and once a good patch of it well started, it will last a lifetime, with a little care annually. Any good, rich light and well drained soil will do. It should be made very rich and plowed deeply. Sow the seed in as good season as the soil will admit, one and one half inches deep, and a foot apart. Previous to sowing soak the seed twenty-four hours in warm water. Keep the soil mellow and free from weeds. The following Spring transplant into rows two feet apart, setting the crowns four inches beneath the ground and the plants a foot apart in the row. The plants at first should be only covered slightly, drawing the earth about them as they grow until the ground is level. Each autumn mulch heavily with stable manure as soon as the ground begins to freeze; fork in the manure carefully each Spring. Keep clear of weeds and cut out seed stalks to prevent seeding. The third year the bed may be sparingly out, and after the third year it will produce abundantly. There is but little choice in varieties, but more in cultivation. It is in season during May and June. Care should be taken not to injure young shoots in forking the manure in, or cutting the stalks. It is very palatable and healthful, and adds not only variety but luxury to the farmer's bill of fare. —Maine Farmer.

Centralization in New York Dwellings.

Among the novelties in real estate is the construction of fine dwellings to the mutual system. Formerly the gentry considered the method only suited to common people, but now it has become a necessity, to which wealth must yield. One of the associations referred to is the Hubert Co-operative Club, which has erected a building 100 feet square in Madison avenue. There are twenty stockholders, and the entire cost is $360,000. At this rate each one pays $18,000, and the interest and taxes and insurance will make an equal expense of $1,300. Cheap enough for a first-class dwelling, which is so contrived that instead of a flat each one has a first and second story, and the elevator renders the highest floors the most desirable. The shares in this club are now in demand at a large premium, and hence it is probable that the new system will be generally introduced. Centralization in dwellings is now becoming the study of architects, whose skill in combining elegance with convenience is often surprising.—N. Y. Corr. Troy Times.

A COUGH, COLD OR SORE THROAT should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES do not disorder the stomach like cough syrups and balms, but act directly on the inflamed parts, allaying irritation, give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Catarrh, and the Throat Troubles which Singers and Public Speakers are subject to. For thirty years Brown's Bronchial Troches have been recommended by physicians and always gives perfect satisfaction. Having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Sold at 25c a box everywhere.

SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE State of Nevada, in and for the County of Washoe.

The State of Nevada sends to REBECCA M. HICKMAN, greeting.

You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by John A. Paxton as plaintiff, in the District Court of the Second Judicial District in and for the County of Washoe, State of Nevada; and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons (exclusive of the day of service), if served in said County, or twenty days if served out of said County, but within said District, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. The said action is brought to recover forty-five hundred dollars, with interest from October 15th, 1880, at one and one-half per cent. per month, and 117 40 dollars with like interest from Nov. 15th, 1880, and to close, a mortgage given to secure the same, together with ten per centum on the principal and interest thereof as an attorney's fee, upon the following described property, situate in Washoe County, Nevada, that is to say: The South ¼ of the Northwest quarter, and the North ¼ of the Northwest quarter of section 4, township 19, North of range 20 East, M.
